Were Walting for Call.
Lieuts Mahoney and Ilghton spoke briefly. Lieut Lighton said that the Massachusette regiments came to the border not as Democrate. Republicans or Progressives, but as American citizens ready to protect with their lives if necessary, other American citizens residing in El Paso and the state of Texas. While it would be unbecoming in an officer to even seem to criticine his superiors. I feel that I am guilty of no impropriety in saying that we have been waiting for this call for two years and when it came it found us ready."
